“I see it!
I see the schoolhouse!”
cried Poppi Toddlewaddle.

He and his sister, Lolli,
were excited to join the
Woodland Schoolhouse
Summer Fun Day Camp.

Poppi and Lolli grew up in Antarctica, the coldest, iciest place on Earth. Their parents taught snowboarding there.

Two days ago, they moved to Honeysuckle Hollow, where there are no other penguins—and no ice in July at all!

“You’ll enjoy the warm weather and you’ll meet new friends,” said Poppi and Lolli’s parents, Paige and Wallis Toddlewaddle.

Poppi crossed his flippertips for luck. He hoped his mom and dad were right.

SCHOOLHOUSE

“Welcome to the Woodland Schoolhouse,”
said Suzy Tippytail.

“Today is our special Summer Splash Day at the schoolhouse pond.
Tommy and I will
lead the fun!”

Summer Splash Day?
Oh, wow! Poppi thought.

He and Lolli had only done
winter sports in Antarctica—but summer sports couldn't be that different.

“This will be fun—you’ll see!”
Poppi said to Lolli, just in case she was feeling nervous.

Mom and Dad waved goodbye.
“See you at the end of the day,”
they called.

“Grab some paddles, tubes, or skis,” said Suzy. “Let’s all head down to the pond!”

The other campers said hello and seemed friendly, but Poppi crossed his flippertips again, just in case.

“First, we’re going canoeing,” said Tommy.
“Any beginners here?”

No one put up their hands—
so Poppi and Lolli didn’t either.

Poppi whispered to Lolli, “We’re great at ice paddling,
so we’ll be good at
canoeing, too.”

But they weren't!

The canoe was sooooo
hard to balance and
suddenly—splash!

Poppi and Lolli tipped.

But right away, Lila and Lolo O’Funnigan paddled over to show Poppi and Lolli how to canoe—and it was fun!

Next, Tommy asked,
“Are any of you beginner
water-skiers?”

No one put their hands up—so Poppi and Lolli didn't either.

“We’re great at snow
skiing,” Poppi said to Lolli, “so we’ll be good at
water-skiing, too.”

But they weren't!

They kept toppling over,
right into the water—
kersplash!

But Hip and Hop
Croakalily helped Poppi
and Lolli learn to water-ski—and it was really fun!

“Now, it’s diving time!”
announced Suzy. “Any beginners here?”

*Lolli and I are experts
at winter diving, Poppi thought, but we'll likely be horrible at summer diving.*

But they weren't! They were great at diving and helping the others learn to dive.

Expert or beginner—
it didn't matter one bit.

Poppi and Lolli
learned new things,
made new friends...

and Poppi never had to cross
his flippertips for luck again at the Summer Fun Day Camp!

Woodland
Schoolhouse®

Poppi and Lolli and their parents, Paige and Wallis, have just moved to Honeysuckle Hollow from cold, icy Antarctica.

It's the kids' first ever summer, their first ever time going to day camp—and their first time meeting other kids who aren't penguins!

Poppi and Lolli hope to make new friends at the Woodland Schoolhouse Summer Fun Day Camp. Will they get to show the other kids their water skills on Summer Splash Day?
Or are they in for a big surprise?
